How the Scriptural Declarations transformed my life

In 2003, I was unemployed, broke and pregnant out of wedlock. Not to mention bitter, ashamed, angry and depressed! Through a series of events and not-so-great choices, I had managed to dig myself into a hole that looked and felt very much like the end of the world.

Yet, today, I look back at that time in my life with utmost gratitude because it was amid all that pain, during one of the lowest points in my life, that God began to teach me how to use the power of his Word to create the beautiful life I desired, a life my circumstances were telling me was impossible.

God supernaturally created the entire universe, including every physical thing we can see, taste, touch and feel, by speaking words of life. (Genesis 1 & 2; Hebrews 11:3) He taught me to act like him, to follow his example. He showed me in very practical ways what it means to be a co-creator with him; to actively partner with him in creating the abundant life he desires so much for me to have.

Like a drowning man, I clung wholeheartedly to this lifeline God had given me and I went straight to work. I gathered as many promises as I could from the bible, personalised them and began to speak them out loud at least twice a day.

In less than six months, my life looked stunningly different to where I had started from and I have never looked back. I experienced supernatural success after success from diligently speaking the Word of God over my life every day, and following the instructions that came out of those times of declaration. (Visit OlawunmiBrigue.com to read more about my journey, and how I am now empowering others to consistently live the Supernatural life)

Do you want to create Supernatural results, just like God?

Do you want to breathe the Life of God into your projects and goals?

Then, you must consistently speak the Word of God over them.

That's why I am making these declarations available to you. Pick the life areas that you want to experience transformation and begin to speak the scriptural declarations out loud. Use them daily. Then, be attentive to what God begins to show you about the words you are declaring. Be attentive to the instructions he gives you and be quick to carry them out.

Before long, you will surely see the manifestation of every good thing you have desired for your life.

I invite you to become a co-creator with the Creator of the universe.

To your Supernatural life,

Scriptural declarations for Extraordinary Career / Business

- I am receptive to the leading of God in my career / business. I walk in divine wisdom daily. I receive insights and ideas that move every project forward to a Supernatural conclusion (Isaiah 50:4)
- The efforts, time, energy and resources I commit to my work produce Supernatural results for all to see (Isaiah 18:5-6)
- Opportunities constantly come my way to increase my knowledge, develop skills and form productive relationships with experts and influencers in my field. (Proverbs 19:2)
- I am guided by the fear of the Lord; the decisions I make in and regarding the work of my hands are divinely inspired and directed, and I do not make errors in my judgement (Isaiah 11:3-4)
- My work is widely recognised and reputed for excellence, and people in and beyond my sphere of influence see and acknowledge how richly the blessings of God are operating in my life. (Isaiah 61:9)
- Just like Joseph, my career / business is characterised by favour, creative inventions, sustained supernatural success and quick promotion.
- God open doors that cause instituted authorities and people in leadership over me to favour me as I work towards my goals.

- I am anointed with the limitless mind of Christ. I daily access and apply the rich store of wisdom resident in Christ. My mind produces creative thoughts and ideas, and I solve problems easily.
- God has given me favour with the people I lead. Their disposition towards me is favourable and they receive instruction with meekness as I lead them successfully into the prosperity God has given.
- In my workplace / business, I always keep the right attitude of love, joy, kindness and patience.
- I am hardworking, excellent, diligent and unusually fruitful in my job because God daily gives me more strength, wisdom and favour than I need to effectively combine my career / business and my family responsibilities, without falling behind in any way.
- Every day at work / in my business, I recognise and fully utilise the opportunities I am given to be a blessing to people.
- The grace of God has made a way for me to move from employee to an employer of many / to expand my business in multiple ways.

Scriptural declarations for Extraordinary Children

- (Insert names of your children), you are fruitful vineyards. The LORD himself is your Gardener. He watches over you and waters you carefully. Day and night, He watches so no one and nothing can harm you. Anything or anyone that seeks to hinder the peace and productivity of your lives the Lord uproots them and removes their influence from your lives.
- The Lord has highly favoured (insert names of your children) and has rooted them firmly in himself. Therefore, my children continually enjoy exceptional experiences and results that testify to God's love and his presence in their lives. (Isaiah 27:2-6 NLT)
- (Insert names of your children), at every stage of your education - formal and extracurricular - you consistently perform at an outstanding level, picking up scholarships throughout your education. You achieve straight top grades in your GCSEs and A Levels, first class degrees in the very best universities and outstanding development in extracurricular activities.
(Deuteronomy 28:13)
- (Insert names of your children), you have a deep sense of responsibility and inquisitive minds; you are disciplined, you consistently demonstrate the drive and commitment to improve your lives as well as other people's lives, you have hearts that love to give and you produce inventions and works that bless many generations. Your lives are dedicated to the unveiling the glory of God. You fulfil God's plan and purpose for your lives.

- (Insert names of your children), you are taught of the Lord and pliable in His hands. You live and keep in step with the leading of the Holy Spirit all your life. You understand and interpret the signs of the times and seasons of your lives as set by the Spirit of God and you walk in synchronism with them. (1 Chronicles 12:32)
- (Insert names of your children), as your Father the Lord guides you continually along the best pathway for your lives. You hear the voice of the Holy Spirit leading you and you follow without delay. You are not like the horse and the mule that have no understanding but must be harnessed with difficult and painful experiences before they obey. (Ps 32:8-11)
- (Insert names of your children), you listen when your father corrects you. You do not neglect your mother's instruction. What you learn from us brings you promotion and honour. You keep the right company of people that increase you. If sinners entice you, you turn your backs on them! (Proverbs 1:8-10 NLT)
- (Insert names of your children), you are happy and full of godly confidence. From birth to adulthood your temperaments are aligned perfectly with the incorruptible and unfading charm of a gentle and peaceful spirit, which is precious in God's sight. (1 Peter 3:4 AMP)

Scriptural declarations for Extraordinary Finances

- God makes all grace, every favour and earthly blessing come to me in abundance. So, I always, in all circumstances without exception, I have everything I need, and plenty left over that I share with others. I am generous on every occasion and my giving brings glory to God as the people whose needs I meet overflow with thanksgiving to him. Through a continuous stream of daily miracles, God multiplies the seeds I plant and I enjoy a great harvest of my generosity. 2 Corinthians 9:10-12
- I trust in the Lord with all my heart; I do not depend on my own financial intelligence or that of the world system. I rely on the Holy Spirit and he directs me onto the path of financial abundance. I receive, listen to and obey the wisdom God brings to me daily, therefore I walk effortlessly in financial prosperity. Proverbs 3:5-6
- At every point of need in my life, like waters from a rock abundant provision becomes available to meet the need. I do not lean on the arm of flesh nor look to the systems of man for help; as I seek God, by Himself, he supplies the need in abundance in truly unexpected ways. Isaiah 48:21
- I am exempt from every form of financial famine or economic recession. By the favour of God that surrounds me daily, I simply do not participate in it. I live beyond the economy of my environment and the work of my hands produce multiple harvests regardless of any situations of famine around me. My family and I are established firmly upon the mountain of financial dominance and it is obvious to all that it is the hand of the Lord that orchestrated it. Malachi 3:16-18

- Regardless of the economic climate of the world, I continue to prosper financially and do not lack resources at any level. (Isaiah 48:21)
- God supplies more than I need with incomes that are consistently more than my standard of living. My finances drink directly and consistently of the rain from heaven – I am never dry or lacking financially. I give cheerfully and abundantly, and I reap multiple fold returns joyfully. I am making an impact in peoples' lives financially. I am building an inheritance for my children and grandchildren. (2 Corinthians 9:8-12)
- Opportunities regularly come my way to make investments that yield abundant returns.

Scriptural declarations for Extraordinary Health

- I give God thanks for the stripes of Jesus by which I was healed. Because Jesus HIMSELF bore all my sicknesses and diseases in his own body, I refuse to bear any sickness or disease in my body.
- Therefore, I speak to every root and symptom of weakness, sickness, disease or death in my body: I command you to be completely destroyed and uprooted from my body without any hope of recovery.
- I declare every destructive virus, bacterium or fungus that touches my body dies instantly.
- I declare no cancerous growth or tumour flourishes in my body.
- I speak life into every damage or malfunction in my body. Wherever you are located, be healed, repaired and restored to health.
- I speak life into my immune system. I declare you are regulated by the wisdom and power of God Almighty and you function perfectly as the strong defender of my body.
- Holy Spirit flood every cell, tissue, organ, part and system of my body with that same life that set Jesus free from the jaws of death.

Scriptural declarations for Extraordinary Love

- God's love for me is everlasting and will never fail. With loving-kindness and favour he has drawn me to himself and continues to show his faithfulness to me. Jeremiah 31:3
- Holy Spirit, teach my heart to understand that you love me exactly as you loved Jesus. Let the revelation of your love for me fill my heart and perfect every area of my life. John 17:23
- I receive God's Love and it roots out all sin, weaknesses and inferiority complex in my life. 1 John 4:10
- I am always aware of God's Love for me and that awareness increases daily. I make excellent decisions all the time as I am led completely by the Love of God.
- I am filled with the fruits of righteousness as I walk solely and continuously in the love of God. Philippians 1:9-11
- God's perfect love for me has delivered me from all fear. There is no fear in me. I am full of the faith of God and walk in that boldness and confidence in the name of Jesus. 1 John 4:18
- My Father loves me and does not withhold any good thing from me. I have no sense of want or lack. I have complete faith in the Love God has for me to supply all my needs with abundance. John 3:35

- My Father loves and shows me in clear detail what I should do and where I should go. I have no confusion in my life and all things work together for my good. I willingly follow the direction of God for my life because I am confident that my Father loves me and he only leads me along the best pathway for me. John 5:20
- I live a life filled with love, following the example of Christ. I love people everywhere and I offer myself as a sacrifice for them, a pleasing aroma to God. Ephesians 5:2
- The Love of God compels me to reach out and be Christ's representative to the people around me. I recognise opportunities to minister the love of God to
- believers and unbelievers. With boldness and faith working by love I take up these opportunities and I witness lives transformed for the glory of God.
- The love of God has been deposited in my heart. Therefore, I am patient and kind. I am not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. I do not demand my own way. I am not irritable. I forgive easily and I keep no record of being wronged. I do not rejoice about injustice but I rejoice whenever the truth wins out. I never give up, I never lose faith, I am always hopeful and rejoicing in the Lord, and I endure through every circumstance." 1 Corinthians 13

Scriptural declarations for Extraordinary Marriage

Please note: The declarations are written from the wife's perspective. Husbands / husbands-to-be please adjust accordingly.

- God is the author of our marriage; therefore, no person or circumstance can separate us.
- Our marriage is a delightful inheritance from God. It grows from strength to strength and it is full of increase, enjoyment, laughter and fulfilment.
- In our marriage, the Word of God is the highest authority. My husband and I esteem the Word of God far above all. We find pleasure in obeying whatever God directs us to do.
- Our marriage is a fruitful vineyard and the LORD himself is the gardener. He watches over our marriage and nurtures it carefully. Day and night, He watches so no one and nothing can harm our marriage. Anything or anyone that seeks to hinder the peace and productivity of our marriage, the Lord uproots them and removes their influence from our lives.
- The Lord has highly favoured this marriage and has rooted it firmly in Himself. Therefore, our marriage blossoms, my husband and I are unusually fruitful in all that we do.

- My husband and I live together peacefully regardless of any differences in our personalities and tendencies. The love of God empowers us to relate with each other in complete harmony and submission to each other.
- My husband loves me and understands me. He is like Christ and he takes responsibility for our family just as Christ does for the church. He is a provider for our family and he loves me and our children with the self-giving love that Christ showed for His family, the church. He provides leadership to me the way Christ does to the church, not by domineering but by cherishing. He goes all out in his love for me and our children, a love marked by giving, not getting.
- I understand and support my husband in ways that show my support for Christ, I respond to my husband in every aspect of our relationship. I am a great wife to him and his heart safely trusts me. Just as the church submits to Christ, I submit to my husband out of my reverence for Christ.
- I build up my husband and my children with words of life. I do not tear them down with harsh words. When I speak I have something worthwhile to say and I say it with kindness.
- My husband and I are sincere and truthful with one another. We speak the truth to each other always in love, no refuge of lies or walls of deception build up between us, we are naked before each other and before God at all times and we are not ashamed.

- Our marriage is rooted and established in the love of God. My husband and I are growing leaps and bounds every day in the revelation of how much God loves us and our marriage is prospering more and more because of this understanding. Our hearts are pliable in God's hands and we both enjoy an intimate relationship with God who is teaching and empowering us to be successful in our marriage.
- My husband and I trust in and rely on each other confidently. We comfort, encourage, and do each other only good as long as there is life within us.
- We enjoy the fruits of God's love - patience, kindness, trust, protection and forgiveness in our marriage. In the name of Jesus, I declare fear, anger, envy, jealousy, bitterness, strife and pride do not take root or reign in our home.
- My husband and I hold our marriage and family in the highest honour in all things and at all times. We esteem them worthy, precious and of great price. Nothing or no one takes priority over our marriage or the children God has given us.
- My husband and I are completely attracted to one another and we satisfy each other sexually. We only share our love and the pleasures of intimacy with each other. The grace and the mercy of God preserve our marriage and our home from all forms of sexual immorality.

Scriptural declarations for Extraordinary Protection

There is perhaps no better or more detailed scripture than Psalm 91 on that subject. To add to Psalm 91, here's a short confession of my own.

- When a strong young lion stands growling over a sheep it has killed, it is not frightened by the shouts and noise of a whole crowd of shepherds summoned against it. In the same way, the LORD of hosts fights and prevails for me and my family – (call your names one by one).
- The LORD of hosts hovers over us and protects us like a bird protects its nest. He defends and delivers us from every evil word, action and intention against us.
- By the blood of Jesus mercy triumphs over judgment in our lives, the Lord causes every plague to pass over us. He preserves us in perfect peace.
